

Australasian
Association of Professional
Organisers Inc

AAPO

Terms & Conditions

November 2011

AAPO Terms & Conditions

The following constitute the terms and conditions of AAPO membership. Please make sure you have read and understand these terms fully. By becoming a member of AAPO, you agree to be bound by these terms & conditions, and you also agree that a breach of these may result in cancellation of your membership.

These terms & conditions apply to all applicants who submit to become an Australasian Association of Professional Organisers (AAPO) financial member.

As per the Australasian Association of Professional Organisers rules of Incorporation, all applications for membership will be reviewed by the Executive Committee. Applicants for Membership will be notified of their application status.

By applying for Membership of AAPO, you agree to these Terms & Conditions, specifically:

1. Your membership is valid for 12 months from initial payment of membership.
2. The AAPO joining fee is payable on your initial membership application. If your membership lapses more than 30 (thirty) days, your membership will cease. If you wish to renew your membership after that 30 day period, you will be required to re-join and pay the joining fee in addition to renewal fee.
3. You will be issued with a membership card to use whilst you are a fully financial member. The membership card has your membership expiry date on it. You will use your current AAPO membership card to redeem all discounts and member offers available to you. The membership card is for your use only and is not transferrable. You may not claim, or use AAPO member discounts and benefits after your membership has expired.
4. You agree to be bound by AAPO Code of Ethics. You also agree that failure to comply with the AAPO Code of Ethics can result in cessation of membership and all associated privileges.

PO Box 1241
Blackburn North
VIC 3130
INC A0047970Y
ABN 42238502235

Australasian
Association of Professional
Organisers Inc

5. You promise to operate your business in a professional, moral and ethical manner and that you will not bring AAPO into disrepute in any way as deemed by a reasonable person.
6. You agree to operate your business in accordance with all relevant international, federal, state and local government bodies as are applicable to your business and your dealings with AAPO.
7. You agree that AAPO and/or its office bearers and representatives will not be held in any legal responsibility in relation to your business dealings.
8. If you resign or your membership lapses, you agree to cease using the AAPO logo on any promotional or other material. You also agree to remove all references to you being a member on your website, business cards and all other material under your control.
9. You agree that if contentious circumstances arise at any time between yourself and AAPO or yourself and another AAPO member, your membership status may be reviewed. You further agree to be bound by any decision that may be made by the AAPO Executive Committee and acknowledge that AAPO Executive Committee has the right to terminate your membership of the Association and that a decision to do so is final and conclusive.

PO Box 1241
Blackburn North
VIC 3130
INC A0047970Y
ABN 42238502235